	Saturday	1:00-4:30

The Renaissance Company is an audition-based, pre-professional program designed for exceptionally talented young performers aged 12-18 who are ready to take their musical theatre skills to the highest level. This elite team provides rigorous training across all facets of musical theatre, including singing, dancing, and acting, preparing students for elite competitions and professional quality performances.

Program Highlights:

Vocal Training:

The Renaissance Company receives elite vocal coaching to refine their technique, expand their vocal range, and enhance their performance quality. The curriculum covers a diverse range of musical theatre styles, focusing on advanced breath control, music theory, dynamic expression, and stage presence. Company members will work on challenging solo pieces, intricate harmonies, and emotionally compelling storytelling through song. As part of The Renaissance Company monthly tuition, each Company member is able to choose from two options to continue their vocal training outside of the rehearsal process. Company members can choose EITHER (a) to participate in Musical Theatre Singing Styles (Thursday 7:00-8:00pm) or (b) receive a $50 monthly credit to be applied to Private Voice Lessons.

Dance Training:

Dance training in this program is designed to push students to their limits, focusing on advanced techniques and dynamic movement. As part of The Renaissance Company monthly tuition, each Company member will receive an individualized recommendation for one of Renaissance PAC's dance technique classes. These Director-recommended classes are intended to grow the technical dance bases of the Renaissance Company. Renaissance Company members are encouraged to take Ballet, Jazz, Contemporary and Tap classes in their skill level. Multi-class discounts apply, please email info@renaissancepac.org for more information.

(Renaissance Company Contd.)

Acting Techniques:

Acting instruction focuses on character development, emotional depth, and nuanced storytelling using various acting methods such as Stanislavski and Chekhov. Company members will engage in intensive scene study, monologue work, and improvisation, learning to embody complex characters and deliver authentic, compelling performances that resonate with audiences.

Competition and Performance Experience:

In 2025, Renaissance Company members will have the opportunity to travel and compete at Musical Theatre Competitions of America, an international musical theatre competition, providing students with unparalleled opportunities to showcase their talent and artistry. As the Renaissance Company continues to grow, we plan to travel to the Junior Theater Festival, Dance Excellence, and more performing arts workshops and competitions. These experiences are essential for building confidence, stage presence, and the ability to perform under pressure at the highest level and prepare company members for a future in the performing arts industry.

(Renaissance Company contd.)

Collaborative and Supportive Environment:

The Renaissance Company fosters a culture of excellence, teamwork, and mutual support, where students are encouraged to push their boundaries, support their peers, and strive for artistic excellence. Company members collaborate on challenging ensemble pieces, share creative ideas, and inspire each other to reach new heights of performance excellence.

Mentorship:

The Renaissance Company will receive personalized mentorship and guidance from industry professionals, including directors, choreographers, and vocal coaches, who provide invaluable insights and advice on navigating the competitive world of musical theatre. Through our extensive network of industry connections, Renaissance Company members will have the opportunity to attend workshops and masterclasses covering audition techniques, career development, and industry insights, preparing students for success in the professional theatre world.

Fundraising:

The goal of Renaissance Performing Arts Company is to make a career in the performing arts accessible to students of all backgrounds and we are determined to secure the resources needed for success on the competition stage. Through lively performances, strategic partnerships, and creative campaigns, Renaissance PAC will provide multiple opportunities for Renaissance Company members to fundraise competition and travel fees.

The Renaissance Company is designed for young performers who are passionate, dedicated, and ready to commit to excellence in musical theatre. If you're ready to take your skills to the next level, join us and embark on a journey of artistic growth, personal development, and unforgettable performance experiences.
